

PGT Officer Report January 2023

Hey everyone!

January passed by in the blink of an eye. Hope everyone has had a chance to settle down and hope you are doing well in the course.

This month was cut in half thanks to the very welcomed winter break, but lucky for us we have had some new members added to our family in January. We hosted a welcome mixer on the 19th of January for the new students that have come in January and to welcome everyone else after a relaxing winter break. It was a huge success thanks to all of you. We had some of our family members play some lively music and sing songs. A lot of us were able to enjoy other games that were available. I had also received some feedback regarding concerns with timetable etc. Thank you for letting me know and I'll try my best to raise this concern forward. I also attended the recent parliament meeting, where we talked about the progress of the night bus and the revenue generation for our student union.

This month, I will try hosting another event. Keep yourself free around 2-3 P.M. on the 10th of February (Friday) for a coffee break. It's the end of almost a month after the term has started and I'd love to meet you all and hear your experiences. Later in the month we'll try to host another event. Please share your suggestions (karaoke night, movie night, dance night, games night, mixer, dj, music, or anything else) on our Instagram page or my ID. I am hoping to have many more activities in the future so that you guys have something to look forward to while academics tries to take its toll on us.

Please feel free to share any questions regarding our community, any concerns regarding any problem that you are facing or just come for a chat, know that you have a family here. I'm usually (almost always) roaming around the campus somewhere (email – pgtofficer@essex.ac.uk or shoot me a DM on instagram @pg_uniofessex).

Lastly, I'm very excited to get to meet and know you all and for what's to come in February. I hope to hear from you, see you next month!
