

Introduction

Hiya everyone! How's everyone doing? Deadlines are properly starting to ramp up and I know it's a lot, so make sure to take care of yourselves. History Month has ended and it was so much fun so thank you so much for showing up and having a nice time!

Goals

This month's goals are all about Ignite – getting it back up and running, promoting it, and basically ensuring it's fit for the community. But we also have two events happening this month – a mastermind style quiz and a murder mystery. So, I'm really wanting to do those well and I hope you'll all enjoy them.

What have I been up to?

This month has been really busy. To start with we had the History Learning event in the Squares followed by several conversation events. And to round out the month we had the random presentation afternoon, which was some of the most fun I've ever had, and everyone really went above and beyond. I've also been planning the events for this month and writing the murder mystery from scratch, so I hope you all enjoy it.

What to expect next month?

Next month is mostly during the Easter holidays so there may not be much going on as I'll be home with my family. However, I will be getting the events for third term ready! There's going to be a Brooklyn 99 style heist in the new common room, promo for the common room, and maybe even a black tie event for the community!

Stay safe and be kind folks,
Harry
